

My Vision on The Yellow Vests are Coming!

Mat 23:15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

This a.m., Sabbath, Dec. 8, 2018, the Lord gave me a vision on the Yellow Vest movement that began in France, and is now spreading to other countries in Europe. Protesters are protesting to the various leaders of the countries involved, but the real culprit is the Pope. The Angel of the Lord showed me that EVERY MEMBER OF THE NEW MOVEMENT SDA CHURCH is corporately responsible for this accord by the Pope that will eventually bring on the Sunday Law, because an SDA, the Prime Minister of Jamaica, is supporting the Pope's cause.

Andrew Henriques is protesting this cause, but he seems totally oblivious to the biblical principle of Corporate Responsibility, because he is a MEMBER of the SDA new movement. He mentions the SDA Prime Minister of Jamaica, his homeland, as supporting the Pope's cause of climate change, but fails to see how he HIMSELF, is corporately responsible for the abominable act of Andrew Holness, in supporting the Pope's accord on climate change which will surely be implemented to bring on the Sunday Law.

I was shown that Andrews message of warning, as well as that of Walter Veith, will only serve to make those who accept their message to become MEMBERS of the apostate new movement they are MEMBERS OF, twice the child of hell by bringing them into an apostate new movement that is fully corporately responsible for everything Andrew protests in that new movement. Of course, this verse applies to all MEMBERS who cross sea and land to make converts to the new movement. The warning should be given, but we should not convert members to what is now the Synagogue of Satan, because God has been removed (1SM 204-205).

What men like Andrew and Walter are doing would be tantamount to Christ and the disciples proselyting members for the apostate Temple they separated from. It is tantamount to Reformation Reformers proselytizing for the Catholic church rather than the Protestant Reformation.

These two men do a good job of communicating the truth that they mix with their error, but that better serves the cause of Satan, when they NEVER TELL ALL THE PRESENT TRUTH FOR THIS TIME. Thus, they, and all who follow their lead, are like the man Ellen White speaks of in Chapter 1 of The Great Controversy, who roamed the streets of Jerusalem for 7 years crying about all the abominations and woes, but did not know and give all of the truth as to when to flee that apostate religious organization, so that he died in the debacle that he ardently prophesied against. Here is the account of this from GC:

"All the predictions given by Christ concerning the destruction of Jerusalem were fulfilled to the letter. The Jews experienced the truth of His words of warning: "With what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again." Matthew 7:2.

Signs and wonders appeared, foreboding disaster and doom. In the midst of the night an unnatural light shone over the temple and the altar. Upon the clouds at sunset were pictured chariots and men of war gathering for battle. The priests ministering by night in the sanctuary were terrified by mysterious sounds; the earth trembled, and a multitude of voices were heard crying: "Let us depart hence." The great eastern gate, which was so heavy that it could hardly be shut by a score of men, and which was secured by immense bars of iron fastened deep in the pavement of solid stone, opened at midnight, without visible agency.—Milman, The History of the Jews, book 13.

For seven years a man continued to go up and down the streets of Jerusalem, declaring the woes that were to come upon the city. By day and by night he chanted the wild dirge: "A voice from the east! a voice from the west! a voice from the four winds! a voice against Jerusalem and against the temple! a voice against the bridegrooms and the brides! a voice against the whole people!"—Ibid. This strange being was imprisoned and scourged, but no complaint escaped his lips. To insult and abuse he answered only: "Woe, woe to Jerusalem!" "woe, woe to the inhabitants thereof!" His warning cry ceased not until he was slain in the siege he had foretold.

Not one Christian perished in the destruction of Jerusalem. Christ had given His disciples warning, and all who believed His words watched for the promised sign. "When ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies," said Jesus, "then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out." Luke 21:20, 21. After the Romans under Cestius had surrounded the city, they unexpectedly abandoned the siege when everything seemed favorable for an immediate attack. The besieged, despairing of successful resistance, were on the point of surrender, when the Roman general withdrew his forces without the least apparent reason. But God's merciful providence was directing events for the good of His own people. The promised sign had been given to the waiting Christians, and now an opportunity was offered for all who would, to obey the Saviour's warning. Events were so overruled that neither Jews nor Romans should hinder the flight of the Christians. Upon the retreat of Cestius, the Jews, rallying from Jerusalem, pursued after his retiring army; and while both forces were thus fully engaged, the Christians had an opportunity to leave the city. At this time the country also had been cleared of enemies who might have endeavored to intercept them. At the time of the siege, the Jews were assembled at Jerusalem to keep the Feast of Tabernacles, and thus the Christians throughout the land were able to make their escape unmolested. Without delay they fled to a place of safety—the city of Pella, in the land of Perea, beyond Jordan." The Great Controversy, p. 29, 30.

I asked the angel of the Lord why the account of this man is given to us. This is the answer I received: The record of this man's activity is to demonstrate the fact that though one sigh and cry for all the abominations of an apostate church, that is not sufficient for being sealed and saved. Rather than following the example of Christ and His followers in separating from the apostate organization the man protested, he remained a MEMBER for the advantages (perks) that MEMBERSHIP afforded him, such as reduced taxes etc. There were a number of advantages afforded by MEMBERSHIP in the apostate Temple. Many Jews did not want to separate because of the advantages of MEMBERSHIP in the Temple.

Mat 23:15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.
